

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE: Feb. 13, 2018
CONTACT: Roberta Bonaski, 602-686-8743, Public Affairs Department

Glendale HOA Academy classes start in March

GLENDALE, Ariz.—The city of Glendale will offer another informative Homeowners' Association (HOA) Academy this spring. The classes are aimed at providing useful tips to existing neighborhood HOA volunteers, residents and board members.

Participants will learn from specialists in the field and get information regarding local, state and federal laws and HOA procedural best practices. The classes will take place every Tuesday in March at the Glendale Adult Center, 5970 W. Brown St., Glendale. Except for one evening class held March 20 from 5-6:30 p.m., all classes will be held in the afternoon from 1-2:30 p.m.

Glendale HOA Academy Class Dates & Topics

“How to Levy Fines for Owner’s Violations in Light of New AZ Court of Appeals Case”

March 6, 1-2:30 p.m.

“Amending Association Documents”

March 13, 1-2:30 p.m.

“Financial Best Practices for Community Associations”

March 20, 5-6:30 p.m.

“Conserve Energy and Water”

March 27, 1-2:30 p.m.

To date, more than 900 people have participated in the Glendale HOA Academy training and gained the tools needed to more effectively manage and lead their HOA. Training courses are taught by HOA attorneys from the Mulcahy Law Firm, P.C., and representatives of Glendale Water Conservation and Environmental Services who donate their time and expertise.

Registration is required and is now open. The classes are free to Glendale residents and $20 for non-residents. Early registration is encouraged as space is limited. For more information and to register online, visit: www.glendaleaz.com/neighborhoodservices/hoacademy.cfm

###