GLENDALE MAYOR JERRY WEIERS HIGHLIGHTS HOW LOCAL BUSINESSES PARTNERED TO DONATE TWO POLICE VEHICLES TO ROCKY POINT, MEXICO

Glendale, Ariz. -Join Glendale Mayor Jerry Weiers as he details how he facilitated a collaboration among four local businesses to donate two police vehicles to Rocky Point in Sonora, Mexico.

The project now known as “Friends Helping Friends” evolved from the relationship established in the Summer of 2017 between Mayor Weiers and Rocky Point Mayor Ernesto “Kiko” Munro.

During his visit to Glendale in August, Mayor Munro shared his vision to continue to make Rocky Point a safer place for visitors. Budgetary challenges faced by the city would slow Munro’s progress. Mayor Weiers enlisted the Glendale Chamber of Commerce and several members to purchase and donate the vehicles to the neighboring city.

“I know many Glendale residents visit Rocky Point every year and some own property in the area. This project will no doubt help save lives, so it was important to me,” said Mayor Weiers. “I just had to ensure no taxpayer dollars were being utilized to make it happen,” he added.

Learn how the Glendale Chamber of Commerce, Avanti Industries, Sands Chevrolet, and Bell Signs helped turn two decommissioned Glendale police vehicles into official Puerto Peñasco patrols.

Watch Mayor Jerry Weiers in the latest edition of “Glendale’s Best,” slated to begin airing Friday, April 27, at 8 p.m., on Glendale 11. Mayor Weiers spends one on one time in studio with Avanti Industries owner Jerry Petty as each business will share their involvement in the project in their own words. The project reinforces positive collaborations across the region that are mutually beneficial. It also compliments the safety corridor dedicated earlier this year to the route between Lukeville, AZ and Rocky Point.

“Glendale’s Best” is a production of city-owned Glendale 11 TV station and airs daily on Glendale 11. The show is also available through the city’s online video library at www.glendaleaz.com/video.
